SATURDAY MORNING, SEPT. 22, 1928.

SEPTEMBER

September is the Roman centurion of the year, a Roman of the old discipline, but in the beginning of the decline. He stands as the sentry stood with the ashes of Vesuvius coming down and passes away, but does not move.

The dead leaves are falling. The acorns are thumping down. The old order is passing, but the centurion stands with his face to the bright colors of destruction and dies as the captain of a hundred. There is the last bloom of the hollyhock at the tip of the stalk. The Virginia creeper is coloring against the wall. The cricket, a harvet fly, the katydid, give night the voices of the crypt. The red pips are heavy in the wild rose.

September stands at the gate brave in his discipline and bright armor. The martins fly to the southlands. The warblers come and go. The goldfinches flash in the sunflowers. Cloth of gold spreads over the ground and the senturion dies at his post.

We read a lot in the metropolitan press on the financial pages, about "call money" and we wonder what it is. We have called many a time, and it never answers.

An edict has been issued at Peking that all Chinese flappers under the age of 30 must have the hair bobbed or pay a "degeneracy tax." This new Chinese government must have more pep than we thought.

It is said that Uncle Sam made more profit out of the Tunney Heeney fight than the promoters, which isn't such a bad idea after all.

In the excitement of the campaign it is hoped the people will not overlook the dedication of the Grand Canyon bridge on November 10 near Lees Ferry.

Of course it's nice to be a professional athlete but it's our opinion that they don't live any longer than the fellow who got his exercise chopping wood or digging a county ditch.

BEAUTY

Every skin, whether it is dry, oily, or normal, needs daily cleansing, stimulation, protection and nourishment.

The woman who wants to keep her skin soft and fine and youthful looking (and what woman does not!) will do well to bear these four things in mind and to choose the creams and lotions that will best aid her purpose. I have written before of the danger of buying the beauty aids which are sold in the most attractive jars regardless of the quality of the product or of using what a friend has found successful. When you buy your creams, try to suit them to your own individual needs.

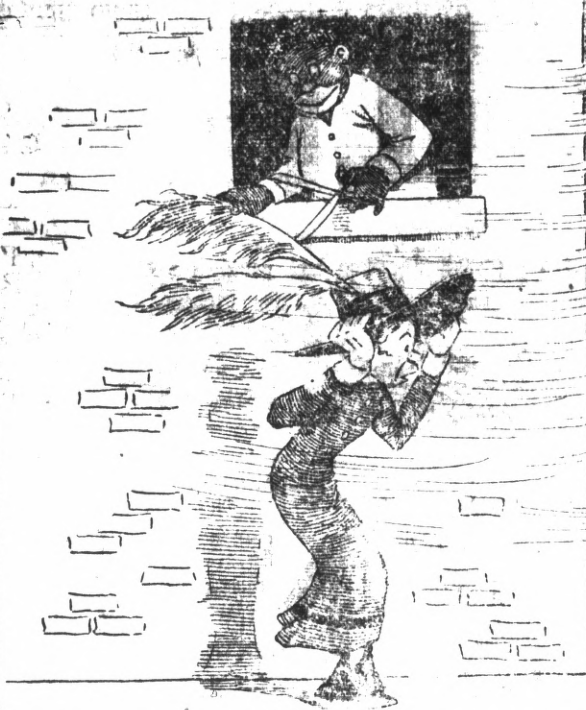

Dear Miss Lane,
Just what is vanishing cream and what purpose does it serve in keeping one's skin healthful and pretty? My powder and rouge go on smoothly enough without any such base and it seems an unnecessary bother to use it. Jenny T.

If you wish to keep your skin smooth and fine, you had better use the vanishing cream to protect your complexion from dust and exposure. Such creams are not only intended as a powder but also serve the purpose of forming a protective layer on the skin.

Period jewelry is now the thing to wear, if you have any heirlooms you are indeed lucky for their time, and copies of the old value is rising every day. Especially jewelry of the Eighteenth Century and thereabouts. Many fashionable women pay very large prices for pieces of that period for that and the very modern jewelry is about fifty-fifty, according to the leading jewelers.

Big Demand for Sport Stars Exists In Hollywood Studios

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 21.—UP.—Golf and tennis champions walk freely through the gates of any studio in Hollywood.

Where the general public gains a stern rebuff in its effort to see the movies made, the masters of the muck and racket find their champions a pass key to the innermost circles of cinema society.

Walter Hagen might have been Archie Compton in their match in England if the noted "Hale" hadn't been whisked from one place to another in Hollywood by Samuel Goldwyn, Joseph Schenck, Douglas Fairbanks and other screen figures who sought the sport of having a mallet shot dead to the pin.

And well-known is the winter when Bill Tilden was the acknowledged favorite of "Queen Pola's" court, not to mention other winners when Ronald Colman, Olive Brook and others listened breathlessly to his most casual remark. "Tis said that the most important conferences could be ended by the mention that 'Hugen's in the outer office.' 'Certain it is that great movie tyrants changed to mere 'yes men' when Tilden remarked, 'You swing a little rusty.'"

Some of these golf and tennis sharks have seen action before the camera, but mostly they were solicited for what they might add to the game of the movie monger.

On the other hand, champions in other sports have passed the movie gates in a different role, although one just as attractive to the producers.

Heavyweight fighters, football, baseball, wrestling, sprint and swim stars have had a good time with the films because of their definite box office appeal.

Jack Dempsey and Gene Tunney both had a whirl at the screen without seriously disturbing their handsome but less athletic contemporaries. So did Charlie Paddock, Gertrude Ederle, Babe Ruth and half a dozen others.

Their appearances didn't cause any dramatic critics to resort to superlatives but they made money for the athletes—and the producers.

Of all the "brawn" group, "Red" Grange possibly came the closest to being of any worth as a permanent film player. Those who are supposed to know said that Grange had camera sense and a filmable face.

The most amusing of all the athletic actors, is George Godfrey, the giant negro heavyweight fighter. Godfrey would drop a $30,000 bout any day to don a trick and colorful extra outfit at the regulation $7.50 per day.

On one occasion his manager was forced to make a transcontinental hop from New York to pull Godfrey away from an extra job—in which he wore a red turban—and set him to training for a bout which was to bring him $25,000.

A lot of bogus information is spread regarding the athletic endeavors of young screen beauties who seek to retain that young and girlish form.

However, there are some real athletes among film players. Patsy Ruth Miller, for instance, plays a creditable game of tennis.

Flames Destroy 2 Local Homes

Two frame houses on Kelsey avenue, North Richmond, were burned to the ground and a third was threatened by a fire of unknown origin yesterday afternoon. Damages were estimated at several hundred dollars. Names of the inhabitants of the houses were not learned.

Engine No. 3 of the Richmond fire department and apparatus of the San Pablo volunteer fire department answered an alarm, but owing to the absence of fire hydrants in the district, they were forced to confine their efforts to preventing the blaze from spreading. Children playing with matches are believed to have started the fire.

Oh Kay! It Is To Laugh

COLLEEN MOORE who appears in a delightful new picture "Oh Kay!" at the California theater for the last time tonight.

Ralph J. Kelley has been appointed executor of the estate of the late Mary Anderson of Fruitvale, it was announced by Clare D. Horner, attorney. Kelley is manager of the Richmond branch of the Eastern Outfit Supply company.

COLLEEN AT BEST IN FILM OF MANY GRINS

Whether Colleen Moore plays in romance, tragedy or comedy seems to be of small importance, for she may be depended upon to be equally enjoyable in each.

Her latest, and possibly most entertaining picture, "Oh Kay!" is an uproarious farce comedy, which delighted the audience at the California theatre last night at its first local showing. "Oh Kay!" has been developed into a screen farce seldom surpassed in the number of hearty laughs included. Colleen's saucy personality dominating the humorous action throughout.

From the moment of a decidedly clever introduction of Colleen until the novel fade-out "Oh Kay!" offers entertainment plus for the whole family—from baby to grandfather.

A hilarious comedy "From Soup to Nuts" featuring Stan Laurel and Oliver Hardy in which they run the gamut of laugh scales, a brand new comedy reel "Radiograms" and the current issue of the International News round out this all comedy show.

Telephone Threat Revealed As Hoax

Richmond police yesterday solved the "mysterious" telephone call to Miss Laura Ramsey of 408 Tulare avenue last week. Two young girls, friends of Miss Ramsey, admitted to police that the call, which hinted that a "couple of murders" were about to be committed in the district was a hoax.

Police were of this opinion when they made an investigation on the night of the call, but took necessary precautions. Names of the two girls are being withheld. At the time of the message, Miss Ramsey was at home alone with a younger sister. She hurriedly notified her father at the Elks club and the police were informed.

DAM MEETING AT LAFAYETTE

Steps to be taken by the residents in the vicinity of the Lafayette dam, which developed fissures several days ago when a portion of it sank, will be outlined at a mass meeting called for tonight in the Lafayette auditorium. Officials of the East Bay Municipal Utility district will be given the opportunity to present explanations of the dam sinkage.

Physical aspects of the dam sinkage will be presented by Arthur P. Davis, general manager of the district, and George Sturgeson, district engineer. Their plans for the repair and rebuilding of the structure will also be presented before the assembly.

Lafayette, one mile from the dam, is in the direct sweep, which makes the residents of the district particularly interested in the safety of the reservoir.

Old Castle In Sweden Shows Modern Ideas

HELSINGFORS, Sweden, Sept. 21.—(U.P.)—Such modern comforts as central heating and drainage have been discovered in a Swedish medieval castle, Glimmingehus, recently restored under the supervision of a government antiquarian, Dr. Sten Anjou. It is now one of the rarest sights of southern Sweden.

From an open hearth in the center of a huge basement kitchen, where two entire oxen could be roasted at the same time, stone flues were found to lead to the different apartments on the four upper floors and alongside one of the kitchen walls there was a stone sink with an outlet through the seven foot wall to the outside.

Built of uncut sand stone, imported from the Baltic island of Gotland, the walls taper until five feet thick at the top. On three sides the site is surrounded by artificial lakes and the approach on the fourth was originally cut by a double moat.

Glimmingehus is said to be the only castle of a Medieval nobleman in northern Europe, still maintained in its original state. Erected in 1499 for the then Danish governor of Gotland, Jens Holgersen Ulftast, it has now been donated to the Swedish state for perpetual preservation.

Lost Golf Ball Mystery Solved

CROWLEY, Tex., Sept. 21.—(U.P.)—Field guns may be added to the equipment of local golfers.

For several weeks golfers on the Crowley course had mysteriously lost their balls. Caddies were stationed at all points on the course, but the balls continued to disappear.

After Grady Magee, deputy county clerk, had lost three balls on as many holes, it was discovered that crows were stealing the balls. The birds would follow the drives and immediately make way with the balls.

Woman Prospector Makes Rich Strike

THE PAS, Manitoba, Sept. 21.—(U.P.)—For the first time in the history of northern Manitoba, a woman has made a mineral discovery of major importance. Miss Kathleen Rice, graduate of the University of Toronto, and well-known pioneer prospector in the northern mining fields, is the woman who has made a rich strike. Her find of copper near the shore of Lake Wewusko has brought several attractive offers for the claim.

CAMPAIGNS BY WEST HUNTERS SAVE BUFFALO

WASHINGTON, Sept. 21.—(U.P.)—The American buffalo, once threatened with extinction by the big-bore rifle, has been saved to posterity by the big-bore typewriters.

After hunters had decimated the mighty herds of bison which once spread like "one great robe" over the Western plains, game conservationists came to the rescue of the remaining fragments with an effective publicity campaign, the result of which is manifest in the tenfold increase of buffalo during little more than a decade. There are now about 1,000 in Yellowstone, according to the typewriter men in "O Ranger!" a book about the national parks by Superintendent Horace M. Albright of Yellowstone and Frank J. Taylor, formerly of United Press. The book is published by the Standard University Press.

"The effective publicity of the conservationists, which actually did save the buffalo from extinction a generation or two ago is pitifully small compared to the vast herds that blackened the plains in the days of the '40's. But there are several fine herds in existence and they are increasing all too rapidly for the peace of mind of their custodians. A buffalo is a huge animal with a voracious appetite."

When the conservationists went into action in the early '90's the Yellowstone herd had been reduced by poachers to 22 animals roaming wild and eight held in captivity. The only other wild buffaloes were 50 animals at large in northern Colorado, which subsequently were wiped out by poachers. There were, however, two fair-sized herds in captivity outside the parks, one in Texas, known as the Goodnight Herd, and another in Montana, the Pablo-Alford herd. There were also small herds in city parks and some buffalo running wild in Canada.

Emerson Hough, the novelist, and George Bird Grinnell, editor, were among the prominent writers who urged the saving of the buffalo. The American Bison Society took up the work in an organized manner, and Theodore Roosevelt took a hearty interest. These efforts led to national legislation to punish poachers in the National Parks, and to the appropriation in 1901 of $15,000 to establish a new herd of buffaloes in the Yellowstone.

New Razor Blade Sensation Marvelous Engineering Achievement by World-Famous Manufacturer Wins Popular Favor

Now the fellows with tough beards and tender skins have no excuses for imperfect shaves. No complaints about old-fashioned razor blades that pull and scrape. The Valet AutoStop Razor—with the new "VALET" blade—is a shaving wonder. The AutoStop Safety Razor Co., which developed it, have had all the practical experiences that make up a quarter century's devotion to shaving problems.

Introduced to the public a short time ago, this new "VALET" blade has received wide acclaim—and dealers everywhere report unusual sales. The name VALET cut through the blade identifies this shaving marvel. Now you can do your shaving "trick" in less than 2 minutes. The first shave—and many shaves after, with the same blade—brings home to you quite forcefully the fact that shaving can be a pleasure instead of a habit.

Not just a habit—but a pleasure

Try the Valet AutoStop Razor—with the new "VALET" blade. The first, second—even the tenth or fifteenth shave with the same blade, convinces you beyond doubt that before your shaving was only an uncomfortable habit—now it's a pleasure.

Accept No Substitute!

AUTOSTOP SAFETY RAZOR CO., INC., NEW YORK, N. Y.

The Blade that Serves the Nation

STROPPING IS ESSENTIAL TO THE PERFECT SHAVE

the new Million Dollar Razor

is a nation-wide SENSATION

Absolutely proves that stropping is essential to a perfect shave

THE new Valet AutoStop Razor was introduced last May. It created a sensation. Small wonder, since it proved a vital fundamental of successful shaving.

Its automatic self-stropping feature demonstrated that all barbers are right—have been for 2,000 years. Because they always strop their razors before they start a shave.

The reason for this is that after the first shave the cutting edge of the finest blade that can be made is a row of minute needle points until it is properly stropped. This smooths our and re-aligns these tiny jagged hooks.

Everywhere wise men are turning to the new Valet AutoStop Razor because it is the only razor that sharpens itself and assures you of a super-keen smooth shaving blade.

Beautifully finished models complete with blades and an improved strop in handsome cases at $1.00 to $2.50.

What's more, 21 years of research and a million dollars have been spent in improving the new Valet AutoStop Razor.

Not only the razor itself but the blades have been materially bettered. A new type guard enables you to use the full shaving edge of these keener blades. You insert or remove them instantly by pressing a button. Blades are locked in a firm, non-flexible grip that eliminates vibration and pull. No need to remove the blade to strop and clean it.

Try the new Valet AutoStop Razor. Give it a fair test. You'll soon be fast friends with it.

You'll enjoy the most perfect and fastest shaves you ever knew. And you'll hold up your hand and say "Never Again!" to the use of an unstropped blade.

PROSPECTOR SAVES LIFE OF PARTNER

FRESNO, Cal., Sept. 21.—UP—William Lucas, 82 year old violin maker and former prospector, is alive and well here today because his 16 year old companion on a mountain trip wouldn't "quit" nor permit Lucas to do so.

The youth, Wesley Albrecht, put up a heroic fight four days and three nights and finally brought his aged and injured partner to safety.

Lucas wished to try prospecting again "just for the fun of it." So he and young Albrecht "packed in" from Hume to Boulder canyon. The morning after their arrival, the elderly gold seeker and his young friend set out for a trip into the hills, taking only a pick and a fishing rod.

"Let's go up this canyon," Lucas said. "I know where the trail comes in."

But he was mistaken and after working their way through underbrush and over rocks and fallen trees, evening found them hopelessly confused as to their whereabouts. Without blankets or food they built a fire and slept.

The next day they traveled from sun-up to sun-down without finding the trail. That night the campfire got out of bounds and set fire to grass and trees. Young Albrecht fought the blaze half the night and finally extinguished it.

The following day the old man fell and injured his back. "Go on and leave me behind," Lucas begged the youth. "I can't make it."

But Wesley declined to consider such a proposal.

"Here, grandad," he said, "I'll hold this pick behind me and you hang on. We'll get out of here and find camp in a jiffy now."

SAYS ITS EASY FOR WOMEN TO HANDLE MALES

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(UP)—It's easy for women in business to handle men, says Miss Carmen D. Beehler, who in her career as employment manager for large corporations, has dealt with every type from "smooth" collegian to the tramp sailor.

Miss Beehler is called upon frequently to hire large groups of husky workmen of the type found around freight docks.

"There have been few occasions when I have not been able to keep a large body of men—be it a hundred or more—on the job," she told the United Press in an interview.

Miss Beehler is employed by Spencer Kellogg, Inc. of New Jersey.

"One reason—and I'm quite frank in admitting it—is because I am a woman. Men have been trained for centuries to do what women tell them and for this reason my troubles with them have been trivial."

"Another advantage a woman employment manager has is in her ability to elicit truthful responses in interviews with men. It's strange the way men tell women the truth, eventually, if not immediately. I imagine lots of poker-playing husbands might have something to say about that."

"If I ask a man, how many years' experience he has had—he will not say five if it truthfully is three. And if he is tempted to be untruthful, he just naturally stutters and gives himself away."

But let a man ask him that question and he'd probably back answer with a "cherubic smile."

Recently, Miss Beehler prevented what might have developed into a catastrophe. She had advertised for 40 men to unload a freighter on the New Jersey side. The advertisement announced Miss Beehler would interview applicants at a Hudson river pier.

Hardly had the small motor launch drawn up to the dock when almost 400 men made a concerted rush for the craft. Miss Beehler ordered the pilot to put the boat out into mid stream.

"If you're going to act like a lot of tyneas, you're going to wait and wait plenty," she shouted to the men on the dock. "I've got all the time in the world."

An hour later, the boat pulled in next to the coal barge which was attached to the side of the dock. Miss Beehler jumped onto the coal barge and ran its length to the far end of the dock, drawing the men like a flock of sheep to her and away from the boat. She ordered them to line up, picked out the required 40 and dismissed the rest.

Justice of the Peace Arthur A. Alstrom and Deputy District Attorney Hiram E. Jacobs have returned from Tehama county where they enjoyed a hunting and fishing trip in the Mt. Lassen district.

They report plenty of deer in the region, although they were not successful in bagging any. Alstrom stated that fishing was good in the region.

Jacobs, accompanied by members of his family, left for Santa Rosa yesterday to visit with relatives for one week.

RICHMOND GRIDDEERS BEAT UNIVERSITY ELEVEN

VISITORS LOSE HARD FOUGHT GAME 13 TO 0

Plunging their way to the second victory of the 1928 grid season, Coach Ivan Hill's warriors yesterday afternoon on the Union high field downed the undefeated University high school of Oakland. Unable to score a single point, the Oakland team was defeated by a score of 13 to 0.

Joe Williams, quarterback, made the first touchdown for the Richmond Union eleven. Using a quarterback sneak, he was able to convert, adding an additional point to the score.

The Richmond team was held down by the Oakland crew after the first touchdown and was unable to cross the goal-line again until the last quarter. In this quarter, Nick Bracco blocked a kick on the Oakland two-yard line and carried the ball over for the final six points, no conversion being made.

Jackson, tackle, loomed up big for the Richmond team throughout the game with his line work.

The lineup was: Westwood and Dalton, ends; Dunlevy and Carson, tackles; Roundtree C. and Ueckel, guards; Truitt, center; Williams, quarter; Scarcella and Hurley, halves and Lane full-back.

Gordon replaced Scarcella; Leonard for Roundtree; Hall for Hurley; Jackson for Carson and Bracco for Lane.

As a result of the game, Richmond's chance for the season looks brighter. There was a cloud on the horizon following the loss of the McClymond game, but that has been removed by defeating the crack University high team.

School nurse says all girls should know this

TALKING to a roomful of high school girls on personal hygiene, an experienced district nurse said: "One of the basic rules of health is to keep the system functioning naturally at all times. Normal exercise and diet habits should be encouraged. But when necessary there's no harm in taking medicine. It's not a harmful thing, and it can't disturb the normal function of any organ of the body. Periodically with girls, there are times when medicine should always be taken. Take a thorough every night for a few days. It's a thoroughly safe and harmless method. It won't cause distress or pain or cramping. It's not a habit-forming substance. It contains no drugs or medicine. It can be taken safely no matter how you are feeling because it is so pure and harmless, and it's just as much of a very woman should keep a bottle on hand. Every drugstore has this remarkable substance. Get the genuine."

DEMPSEY MAY ENTER RING IN TITLE MATCH

By FRANK GETTY,
United Press Sports Editor

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—(U.P.)—Jack Dempsey, former heavyweight fight champion, now appearing in "The Big Fight," a stage melodrama, had a conference today with Tex Rickard, the man who showed him the way to make more dollars than he ever will make as a stage star.

After the conference Dempsey was asked whether he had any intention of returning to the ring to seek the title he lost to Gene Tunney in Philadelphia two years ago.

"The old man is still in retirement," for awhile," Rickard said with a laugh.

The expression "for awhile" implies quite a change of heart on Dempsey's part.

Heretofore Jack had insisted he was absolutely through as a fighter. In a more formal interview Dempsey had declared, "I am through. I am not cutting any paper dolls yet and I do not propose to get in that condition."

Rickard held out no specific offer to Dempsey at this time, but the promoter offered the ex-champ the best among the crop of the heavyweight contenders, and there is no mistaking their verdict.

Tex and Jack were led to the inevitable conclusion that Dempsey would draw an excellent crowd in meeting any of the heavyweights seeking the crown vacated by Gene Tunney.

LOCAL GOLFER RETAINS TITLE

Miss Hazel McCracken of Richmond is again woman champion of the Berkeley Country club as a result of her victory over Mrs. C. E. Kenney, club captain, in the finals of the women's championship tourney yesterday.

In spite of the hot weather, and the fatigue of playing every day this week, Miss McCracken successfully defended her championship by the close score of one up on the eighteenth hole.

B Gridders Of High Defeated

Outweighed by the Oakland Tech high school second team, the B gridders of Richmond Union high school were defeated by a score of 25 to 0.

The locals attempted to put on a winning fight and almost succeeded in the second quarter, carrying the ball down the field to the enemy's one-yard line. But they were held for four downs.

This was the B's second game of the season, the first ending in a victory for the locals when they defeated the Oakland high school 12 to 0. A number of good games are being arranged for the light team for the remainder of the season to give them as much experience as possible with a view to using them for the 1929 grid season on the varsity team.

CONTRA COSTA CLUB TO PLAY FIRST ROUND

The first elimination round of the directors cup tournament at the Contra Costa Golf club will be held Sunday. The qualifying players have been divided into three flights of 16 men each, according to their net scores in the qualifying round of 18 holes which were played off last week end. Match play will prevail throughout all of the elimination rounds based on the handicap of the players at the beginning of the tournament.

In the first flight, A. T. Randall, medalist, is expected to win his match from J. V. Cook. Randall's exceptional shooting with a handicap of 24 was by far the lowest score in the qualifying round. Should he continue his golfing of the past two months it is expected that he will come out as winner of the first flight. His brother, J. A. Randall, runner up in the qualifying round, is expected to give him a stiff battle should they meet in the finals of this flight.

In the second flight A. J. Heald, G. G. Dawson, K. Harms, and J. S. Corbett are all expected to shine before the tournament has ended.

The winner of the third flight will probably be between H. H. Hayden and F. A. Ward, as both of them have been shooting good golf in the recent past.

The matches by flights are as follows:

FIRST FLIGHT

A. T. Randall vs. J. V. Cook.
J. B. Arentz vs. W. P. Hugo.
J. O. Aiello vs. A. A. Blowski.
W. E. McDermott vs. P. D. Butcher.

SECOND FLIGHT

J. C. Hanna vs. A. Aljets.
W. Moore vs. J. A. Regan.
E. O. Mitchell vs. C. Lennafame.
B. E. Stott vs. A. J. Heald.
H. J. Hauser vs. W. C. Shields.
J. C. McKean vs. G. G. Dawson.
T. B. Swift vs. A. E. Landsay.
K. Harms vs. L. Caldwell.
W. A. Sears, Jr. vs. C. K. Armstrong.

THIRD FLIGHT

G. L. Berry vs. J. Barnett.
H. P. Hauser vs. A. H. Herndon.
T. A. Jackson vs. H. H. Hayden.
Wm. Graham vs. F. A. Ward.

"Lefty" Recklebergh, former San Jose twirler, will take the mound for the Clothiers and Carroll will do the pitching for the San Pablans. The game starts at 2:30 o'clock.

ANDERSON IN VICTORY OVER S.F. OPPONENT

Babe Anderson, crack San Jose welterweight, won a decision over Billy Adams of San Francisco in their ten-round go in the El Cerrito athletic club last night.

There was plenty of action throughout the bout, the main event on Joe Rossi's Friday night card. Anderson scored a knockout in the third round that for a time looked like a real knockout, but Adams was game and came up before the count was finished, putting up some good fighting for the remainder of the fight.

An innovation was made last night by the introduction of judges Frank Walsh and William Metzler. Micky Joyce of San Francisco refereed.

In the semi-windup Dallas Bateman of San Francisco gained a decision over Phil Bayes of Portland. The six-round special event did not last long with Jimmy O'Neill of Los Angeles scoring a knockout in the first round of his bout with Charlie Rodgers of Santa Rosa.

Pedro Torres, substituting for Joe Ramos of Oakland, won a knockout from Pat Sweeney of Los Angeles in the third round of their scheduled four-round go.

In the curtain-raiser, Sabino Aparo, scrapping Filipino, won a technical knockout over Norman Townsend of San Francisco in the third round of their four-round bout.

Fred Collins will meet Fricco McGale in the main event next Friday night, which means that fans will get plenty of thrills.

Telephone service between Great Britain and the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg was recently opened.

AWARD COURT GIVES MERITS TO BOY SCOUTS

At least 250 parents and friends of Richmond district Boy Scouts last night witnessed the Court of Honor held in Lincoln grammar school.

Merit badges numbering 100 were awarded members of various troops.

Bert Scoble, representing Richmond chapter Red Cross, presented 25 junior life saving certificates to those scouts who successfully passed the examinations following an eight weeks course conducted under the auspices of the Red Cross.

Speakers of the evening were David Keith, president of Contra Costa council of Boy Scouts who outlined the objectives in the present program for scout work and Rev. A. L. Webb, who discussed the oath and law of the organization.

Public citation for bravery in saving the life of Jack Carlquist, scout, was made to Bernard Park and Leon Edleson, who last week rescued their friend from drowning in the Merced River. The citation was made by Claude E. Clarke, chairman of the Richmond district of Boy Scouts.

The entire program was broadcast over R. F. W. M., Richmond station.

CARTER, PARR LAUD HARBOR

Ford company and the continued interest which is being shown by its officials in the improvement work at the site would preclude any possibility of the plant not being completed at the earliest possible date.

CARTER LAUDS HARBOR
Congressman Carter, a member of the rivers and harbors committee of Congress, visited the Richmond harbor facilities and pointed out the many possibilities that are offered for future development. He asserted that the entire San Francisco bay area must grow together and that the increase in tonnage for one port would mean a proportionate increase for all the others.

Predicting a great increase in water shipping because of the low carrying charge he pointed out that the growth of Richmond waterfront commerce would only be dependent upon the development of facilities.

GREAT FUTURE SEEN
Congressman Carter drew attention to the fact that the back country and industries now established at Richmond would play an important part in the heavy development of water borne commerce which he predicted would pass over the Richmond harbors within the next 10 years.

He lauded Congressman Charles F. Curry for his active interest in the development of Richmond harbor, declaring that his presence in Congress assured Richmond of receiving proper attention in all matters regarding the federal government and harbor development.

The meeting was presided over by E. E. Bull as chairman of the day. Mrs. Ross Calfee sang several solos accompanied by Emil Esola.

Boys Held In Rock Throwing

Accused of throwing rocks through the windows of a Southern Pacific train four boys ranging in age from 10 to 14 years have been arrested and taken to Martinez, where they have been placed in custody of the juvenile court.

Police Inspector Oliver Wylie made the arrests following an investigation of more than a week. According to reports made to police several youths boarded a freight train and from the moving cars hurled the missiles into the moving passenger train injuring several persons.

Victor Loughheed Freed From Jail

Having completed a sentence of seven months in the county jail on charges preferred by Miss Esther Leighton, Oakland newspaper solicitor, Victor Loughheed, San Francisco engineer and inventor was released from custody yesterday.

The "strikers" have been attending a private school which was established shortly after the row opened.

Plans Nearing Completion For War Memorial

Definite action on the memorial shaft and fountain for Richmond Memorial Park started yesterday with the announcement by James A. McVittie, city manager that bids on the memorial will be called by the first of October. Plans are now being drawn by Ernest Flores, Richmond architect.

Of the total $2500, estimated cost of the memorial, $1000 has been raised by Richmond chapter of War Mothers. The city has appropriated an additional $1500. Drinking fountains will surround the shaft which will bear the names of Richmond men who died in the great war. Located in the center of a circle in front of Memorial hall, the shaft will tower above the surrounding shrubbery.

Dedication of the fountain is planned next Memorial Day.

CRIME TOTALS INFLUENCED BY TEMPERATURES

NEW YORK, Sept. 21.—U.P.—Temperature apparently has a marked effect on crime, according to a study, covering a period of six years, just completed by Edwin G. Dexter. The survey was made in New York and Denver.

The number of arrests, Dexter found, increased regularly with the rise of the thermometer. But at 85 degrees crimes of violence began to decrease. Extremely hot weather may make a man feel like fighting but it also takes away the desire to put his inclination in action.

Studies made in many countries seem to indicate that temperature has its effect on the kind of crime committed. Assault and battery, murder and crimes against morals reach their maximum in July and August. In winter, crimes against property are in the ascendancy. John Lewis Gillin, professor of Sociology of the University of Wisconsin, has given the following explanation:

"In summer, people get out of the houses more, contacts are more numerous, the opportunities for disagreement are greater, and consequently, there is a greater possibility of personal violence than in winter. On the other hand, cold indirectly produces crimes against property by reason of the fact that in winter economic need is greater, seasonal occupations are closed down and, therefore, money is scarce with which to buy the necessities of life. The temptations to steal are consequently greater than in the summer."

"There is some evidence to support the theory that heat exerts an influence upon the action of the nervous system," Dexter said. "Cloudy weather was found to be the freest from personal encounters due to the depressing influence of gloomy days. Dexter believes that murders increase during excessively dry periods and seemed to accompany high winds."
